Man Power of Nation Demanded THE NEW DRAFT RULE WILL EFFECT MANY

IDLERS MUST GET BUSY OR THEY WILL BE HUSTLED OFF TO TRENCHES

WASHINGTON, May 22.—"Go to work or fight."

That is the slogan of the government as announced today by President Woodrow Wilson in an executive order.

The new regulations, which become effective July 1, will also affect the following classes:

Persons engaged in the service of food and drink, or either, in public places, including hotels and social clubs.

Passenger elevator operators and attendants, doormen, footmen and other attendants of clubs, hotels, stores, apartment houses, office buildings and bathhouses.

Persons, including ushers and other attendants, engaged and occupied in, and in connection with, games, sports and amusements, excepting actual performers in legitimate concerts, operas or theatrical performances.

Persons employed in domestic service.

Sales clerks and other clerks employed in stores and other mercantile establishments.

The regulation provides that after July 1 any registrant who is found by a draft board to be a habitual idler or not engaged in some useful occupation shall be summoned before the board, given a chance to explain, and, in the absence of a satisfactory explanation, be inducted into the military service of the United States.

NEW POWER FOR BOARDS.

Any local board will be authorized to take action, whether it has original jurisdiction of the registrant or not.

SECRETARY OF WAR SEEKS BILLIONS FOR EQUIPPING BIG ARMY

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Secretary Baker yesterday unfolded his tremendous expenditure program in submitting to Congress an estimate of $1,243,562,456 in cash and contracts.

In addition to the $11,700,000,000 army appropriation bill almost ready to be reported favorably by the House Military Committee, the figures of today indicate an almost $12,000,000,000 land forces program.

Of the great sum asked today, however, Baker informed Congress that he expects to disburse only $1,500,000,000 by March 9 next, when the present Congress expires. The rest is in contracts which he asks to be allowed to close, and on which he will make payments as the work progresses.

He asked a lump sum of $1,000,000,000 to be spent, without limitation, in his discretion. If this is approved by Congress, it will be the largest sum ever thus voted an official, diverting the $100,000,000 discretionary fund to the President which at the time of its proposal met wide opposition.

CONTRACTS SIGNED.

Baker explained that he was asking only $1,500,000,000 in cash because he intended, as fast as the contracts which he asks to be allowed to close are carried on, to apply to Congress for more cash and appropriations. Thus he said that bond money would not be taken from the public until absolutely necessary.

This immense budget goes to the House Appropriations Committee for action. Many of its items have been gone over one by one with the committee already. Chairman Sherley has announced that, although the committee is friendly, it will reserve the right to trim estimates.

This is taken to mean that Secretary Baker may be asked to give a full account of his discretionary billion.

The largest sums which Baker asked are:

Small arms ammunition, $706,486,991.

Small arms, repairs, $350,299,260.

Small arms, target practice, $84,073,725.

Manufacture of arms, $207,324,325.

Machine rifles, $337,726,000.

Armored cars, $272,422,800.

Field and siege cannon, $1,063,131,119.

Ammunition for cannon, $2,701,394,437.

Artillery, $323,633,334.

Ammunition tests, $72,028,275.

Unspecified purposes, $1,000,000,000.

DOESN'T ASK COST.

Baker's plan of not asking for cash until actually needed met the approval of the appropriations committee members. They said it indicated a carefulness of expenditures often ignored by officials with immense budgets.

It is expected 18 months will elapse before the entire sum will be spent and the materials turned over to the Government.

Representative Caldwell, of New York, an administration member of the Military Committee, spoke in the House today, letting it be understood that the facts contained in his speech relating to appropriations to date had been submitted to the War Department for approval.

"Let me frankly say we have made mistakes," said Caldwell, "but America has done more in less time than any of our allies in preparation. She has raised a greater army in less time, and now holds a greater section of the lines, transporting her forces 3,000 miles across infected seas, than England was capable of doing in twelve months across a thirty-mile channel."

WILL LIVE IN FIDMONT

J. J. Davis and family are going to Piedmont to live. They departed this morning, taking their household belongings. Some time ago Mr. Davis traded for a home in our neighboring town and is now going to occupy it.

WORK OR FIGHT IS THE ORDER OF CROWDER

Under a sweeping order of the Provost Marshal General issued today, all men in certain classifications must either go to work or else become members of the National Army—that is, of course, if they are of draft age. One of two things is required of them. They must either join the army or else go into some useful work. There is to be no middle ground.

According to the information coming from Washington, this order abrogates all former exemptions based on dependents or physical disability. Among the occupations which are mentioned in the order as not being useful to the conduct of the war are bartenders, store clerks, gamblers, fortune tellers, waiters, hall porters, club servants and idlers.

Under this broad head it will not be difficult to classify yourself. You don't need a doctor's certificate to tell whether or not you are eligible to military duty or not. The chances are if you are of draft age that the former is the case.

DRAFT DESERTER IS ARRESTED IN OAKLAND

Gust Liodakis, a Greek registered in this city for the draft, but who has evidently been trying to evade service, was captured yesterday by Attorney C. D. Horner, who is special counsel for the draft boards of this county. The man was picked up in Oakland and brought to this city and placed in jail, where he will remain until taken in hand by the federal authorities, which will probably be sometime today or tomorrow.

Liodakis' name was called in the first draft, but he failed to file exemption papers or answer in any way. After months it was ascertained he was in Oakland and he made an attempt to file a questionnaire to straighten himself up, so far as might be with the draft board, but the old charge held against him and he was arrested yesterday by Assistant Robert Kirkpatrick, of the local police force and Federal Attorney C. D. Horner.

Liodakis is an alien and entitled to exemption if he had attended to the matter in time, but by neglecting to do so he forfeited all rights in this way according to the rules of the army draft law.

MRS. HENDERSON'S FUNERAL HELD TODAY

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Henderson, who died Tuesday morning at the family home on A street was held this afternoon at the Calvary Baptist church at 2 o'clock. A large number of the relatives and friends of the young matron attended the last sad rites.

Burial took place this afternoon in Sunset View cemetery. Undertaker E. E. Smallwood attended to the details of the funeral.

KEY ROUTE SYSTEM FAVORS MERGING OF LINES WITH THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC

OAKLAND, May 22.—Merging of the Key Route and Southern Pacific lines in the interest of economy as suggested by the State Railroad Commission was practically accepted by the former company yesterday. The plan, however, would require that an 83 per cent increase in rates be granted in order to give a 7 per cent return on the investment, according to Washington Creed, attorney for the Key Route and G. R. Kibbe, its engineer.

To operate the two transbay lines as one and to eliminate the Alameda and Key Route piers, sending all traffic through the Oakland pier and cutting off duplicate lines, Kibbe asserted would require 55 per cent increase in rates. The consolidated system as suggested by E. N. Prouty, former city engineer of Berkeley, was attacked by E. E. Thornton, operating superintendent of the Key System. Thornton held that three piers are necessary to handle the traffic instead of one.

The engineers for the company submitted a plan for a consolidated system which closely resembles that suggested by the engineers of the commission, but they held that sufficient allowance for equipment had not been made. Creed asserted that the figures taken by the Commission were for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, which gave the Key Route a tremendous travel during the last six months of the Exposition. These figures, therefore, did not represent the average returns of the company.

The hearing was adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in order to give the Key Route an opportunity to argue its case.

BIG RED CROSS DRIVE WILL REACH HALF WAY MARK TODAY, SAYS CLARK

With $6790.60 in actual cash and $332.00 in pledges, a total of $7122.60, Chairman Clark is confident that Richmond's Drive will reach the half way mark today.

The Santa Fe Division reported in the $530.40 this morning. This amount represents the subscriptions of only a few of the Santa Fe men. This means that the Santa Fe will make a splendid showing when all subscriptions are in.

Chairman Clark visited the local headquarters at El Cerrito, Stage, Point Richmond and San Pablo yesterday. Although no complete returns can be given, Mr. Clark reports that the work is in full swing at all of these divisions with promise of all going over. El Cerrito will give a dance tonight, the entire proceeds going to the Red Cross. Prominent speakers will be present and give addresses during the evening.

At Stags all the employees of the Pacific Cartridge company are giving one day's pay. This will make the contribution of the employees of that concern a big one, amounting to about $200.00.

There will be a big Red Cross rally at Pinedale tonight. Chairman Clark is in charge of the entertainment committee, and a big time is promised. Lieutenant Daguerre and several other well known men are to speak. Richmond's Fraternal organizations are showing a fine spirit and are all coming forward with special contributions.

The following divisions have reported in since Tuesday:
No. 1—Mobilized Women, $632.50.
No. 2—Macdonald Ave. 1st to 5th streets, $257.75.

No. 3—Macdonald Ave. 5th to 10th streets, $672.00.
No. 4—Macdonald Ave. 10th to 16th streets, $18.50.
No. 7—Standard Oil company, $2200.60.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI WILL GIVE THEIR DANCE

The Alumni dance will be given Saturday evening, June 1st in the auditorium of the new addition to the high school. The place will be prettily decorated and good music has been secured for the affair.

The entire net receipts of the race will be turned over to the Red Cross. The arrangement committee is composed of the following young men and women: Edith Delp, chairman; Edith Wolfe, Ruth Adair, Elmer Conn and Donald MacGregor.

PRESIDENT TO BE EMPOWERED TO CALL OUT ALL MEN FOR ARMY WORK

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Members of the House Military Affairs Committee claiming to have authoritative information before Secretary Baker took the stand today asserted he would ask that the full man-power of the United States be registered and that the President be given authority to take men of any class or of any age, without consulting the War Department, the necessity for such action arises.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee's consideration of the $11,000,000,000 army bill came this afternoon, when Secretary of War Baker appeared before the committee asking the insertion in the bill of a provision giving the President unlimited power to draft men for military service.

The secretary is expected to ask that the full man power of the United States be registered.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Theatrical performers were exempted from the new draft regulations at the direction of Secretary of War Baker, who is said to feel that the people can not do without all amusement in wartime and that other amusements could be dispensed with more readily.

TEACHING AMERICANS THRIFT
Fairly reliable statistics show that in the three Liberty Loans 25,000,000 subscribers have invested two billion and a half dollars in bonds of $50 and $100 denominations.
This money has not come from savings banks. It represents the savings of the American people out of a year's income. In other words it is money which, before the war, was spent foolishly.
This war is going to teach us many things, one of which is thrift. America produced the greatest apostle of thrift—Benjamin Franklin—that the world has ever known, but unfortunately we failed to profit by his teachings. But out of the war we shall believe, emerge as a nation of savers. Some of us will take to the new order of things willingly, just like a duck takes to water; others will be forced into it. But we are all going to come to it and like it. This does not apply to saving money alone, but to plainer living and dressing, with the inevitable result that the American people will have more money than in the past and enjoy better health.

With thrift being inculcated into the minds of the children in the schools it is certain that the rising generation will not have the spendthrift habits of their elders. The latter are also learning their lesson, although it is coming rather late in life for some of them.
"If John D. Rockefeller should ask you to lend him money at 4 1/4 per cent you would do it," reads an advertisement in the New York Evening Post. Indeed we would not. If John D. should ask us to lend him money at 4 1/4 per cent or any other per cent, we'd buy two cigars, knowing that before we finished the second smoke the end of the world would come sailing along.

"I sleep in mud; I bathe in blood;
but my soul is with the stars."

AND when his black hour comes—when his cry for help and mercy goes out to you thousands of miles from home—

Does it matter, then, whose boy he is? He is some mother's boy—isn't he? Some mother crooned him to sleep in his lullaby days; some mother spent anxious days and wakeful nights over his little trundle bed; some mother cuddled him and nursed him and prayed for him and watched him grow into sturdy manhood. And then, when the call came, some mother gave him willingly—aye, fervently—that other mothers' sons yet to come may enjoy peace and freedom and democracy as their rightful heritage.

FOR days on end he wallowed in mud—for months he stood the muck and the filth and the stench of the trenches. And now he lies wounded—his life-blood slowly ebbing away. Picture the anguish, the torture, the despair, the misery of it all!

Can you find it in your heart to deny him the help he so urgently needs? True—you cannot be there to help him. But the Red Cross—as your representative—is there. Will you do your share to keep this "hand of mercy" at its work? Will you help the Red Cross—The Greatest Mother in the World—to care for this mother's son and thousands and thousands like him?

Remember—every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.
Don't wait until you're asked—give now; give until your heart says stop!

HERE'S ONLY TEAM ON BIG CIRCUS THAT STANDS ALONE

There are teams and teams with a big circus—elephant teams, camel teams and zebra teams—and all of them have to be watched. They can't be left standing around anywhere untended. But here's a team with the Sells-Floto Circus, coming to Richmond Saturday, May 25th that can be left in the middle of the city street while the two-mile parade passes on. Every time this trick donkey and this performing elephant are left standing a moment, they go to sleep—drowse right off. But both are clever actors, as clever as a monkey. Maybe, that's one reason why the circus people humor them and often let them dream on. But when the band booms the measures of "The Birth of the Rainbow," opening extravaganza of the performances, their sleep is over for the day. They have to act then.

JACK PICKFORD IS APPEARING AT RICHMOND

At the Richmond Theater today, clever young Jack Pickford, the Paramount star, is appearing in a continuation of "Tom Sawyer" entitled "Huck and Tom" which, although complete in itself, abounds in the thrills and fun of Mark Twain's original book, taking up the boy's adventures from the discovery of the grave robbers to the finding of gold in the cave where he and Becky Thatcher are martyred for several days. The cast is the same as in "Tom Sawyer"—the same "Aunt Polly" skillfully depicted by Edythe Chapman, the same ragged, happy-go-lucky little drollet of a Huck Finn as played by Robert Gordon and the others the same with the exception of Frank Lanning who appears as Injun Joe and Tom Bates as Muff Potter.

RICHMOND ASTONISHED BY MERCHANT'S STORY

A merchant relates the following: "For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had stomach catarrh. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka relieved me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. C. E. Nidecker, druggist.

Mrs. E. Klein, 1812 Nevin Avenue, Richmond, says: "I felt weak and the least work completely wore me out. My kidneys didn't act right and I had frequent attacks of backache. Several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills removed the trouble and I regained my strength. I no longer felt languid or run down."
(Statement given April 20, 1913).
